

ION Secures $2.5 Million Line of Credit with Bridge Bank

SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.-(BUSINESS WIRE)-September 26, 2005 – ION Networks, Inc. (OTC:IONN.OB) a leading provider of solutions that secure access and administration to a wide variety of devices operating in voice and data networks, today announced the execution of an asset based credit facility for $2.5 million with Bridge Bank, N.A. (NASDAQ:BBNK). The revolving credit facility has a two-year term, provides for advances of up to $2.0 million against eligible accounts receivable and an additional $500,000 against inventory. Certain assets of the company secure the credit facility.

Patrick Delaney, Chief Financial Officer of ION Networks, commented, “We are extremely pleased to announce this credit facility with Bridge Bank. This is ION’s first debt facility in many years and demonstrates another step in the company’s return to financial stability. This financing will provide additional working capital to support ION’s growth and overall strategy.”

“Bridge Bank is delighted to begin our relationship with ION Networks,” commented Michael J. Field, Executive Vice President of Bridge Bank’s Technology Finance Group. “ION is one of our key East Coast technology clients, and exemplifies the Bank’s commitment to serving technology companies throughout the U.S.”
